

Computer Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)

Information Systems Office

Computer network and internet access is provided for students of Lancaster Bible College | Capital Seminary & Graduate School for the purpose of furthering their education and facilitating their participation in academic activities, research, and collaboration. All students must respect areas on the network that are not for general access, and refrain from accessing sites on the Internet, which are not conducive to spiritual growth. In addition, all must realize that there are file and resource limitations:

Terms and Conditions

- 1. Privileges – The use of network and Internet is a privilege, not a right, and any inappropriate use may result in the loss of this privilege and/or disciplinary measures. The College administration is responsible for this Computer Acceptable Use Policy (AUP).
- 2. Network Etiquette – While on the computer network, all persons must conduct themselves in a responsible, ethical, polite and Christ-like manner.
- 3. Security – Private computer accounts and files must be respected. Your computer account name and password are assigned to you by the College. Do not reveal these to anyone. LBC reserves the right to log all computer usage, and access or attempted access to inappropriate sites will be cause for disciplinary action.

Please ensure you log off the network when you are finished using shared computers, such as those in classrooms or student labs. While the College will investigate any allegations of fraud or unauthorized access, it is crucial that you log off the network after each session to maintain security.

- 4. Acceptable Use – The purpose of the computer network is to support the educational mission of the College. Your use of it must be consistent with the educational objective and mission of Lancaster Bible College | Capital Seminary & Graduate School. The College filters inappropriate Internet sites, reserves the right to deny access, and logs all Internet activity.
- 5. Prohibited Use – The activities listed below are strictly prohibited by all users of the network.
 - a. Allowing an unauthorized person to use an assigned account.
 - b. Transmission of any material in violation of any governmental regulation or law, such as, but not limited to: copyrighted, threatening, offensive, obscene, or protected by trade secret. Some examples are unauthorized downloading of copyrighted music or films.
 - c. Accessing, attempting to access, or transmission of any prurient sexually oriented, other indecent, offensive, objectionable, inappropriate, or other anti-social material.
 - d. Participation in inappropriate or objectionable on-line chat rooms or news groups.

- e. Attempting to obtain or modify files, passwords, or data belonging to other users or attempting to circumvent system security, guess passwords, or in any way gain unauthorized access to any computer resources by any means.
 - f. Modification or destruction of college computer resources.
 - g. Use of any computer to facilitate any illegal activity.
 - h. Use of any computer to misrepresent others.
 - i. Use of any computer and related College facilities for any commercial activity.
 - j. Use of the LBC network or email systems to send any type of mass email without the specific permission of the Dean of Students.
- 6. Disk Space and Bandwidth – There are limits to disk space and internet bandwidth; therefore, it is important that information in subdirectories and mailboxes be deleted regularly. The College reserves the right to deny access to Internet sites that could use an inordinate amount of bandwidth.
- 7. Email and Personal File Space – You have been granted email privileges. While these are generally protected from unauthorized access, IT Administrators, with Vice President approval, are authorized to access and view all college data.
- 8. Disclaimer – Lancaster Bible College makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the services provided. LBC will not be responsible for the damage you suffer, including but not limited to loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries, mis-deliveries, or service interruptions. Use of any information obtained via LBC network is at your own risk.
- 9. ChargerNET – ChargerNET is a managed wireless network at the Lancaster Campus used for media, streaming, and gaming. Users may register up to four personal devices that are not compatible with the primary wireless network. The activities listed below are strictly prohibited by all ChargerNET users.
- a. Registering wireless printers, routers, network attached storage devices, or other non-gaming or non-streaming devices.
 - b. Use of Virtual Private Network (VPN) software.
 - c. Use of Peer to Peer (P2P) networks or downloading of copyrighted materials.
 - d. Server activity, beyond the hosting of game matches, such as music and/or movie servers.
 - e. Use of media (movies, music, or games) containing pornographic material, morally degrading content, or excessive profane language. Please note: Students are encouraged to use godly wisdom in selecting media, and at times, may need to do their own research before watching a movie, playing a game, or listening to a song (Psalm 101:3). Lancaster Bible College reserves the right to prohibit the use of specific media by students, on a case-by-case basis, when judgement is in question.
- 10. Violations of this policy, or misuse of ChargerNET, may result in the suspension of access to ChargerNET and continued violations could result in a permanent ban from the network. Higher Education Act Compliance (HEA) – Lancaster Bible College complies with and enforces, to the extent practicable the Higher Education Act. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- a. LBC does not permit Peer to Peer (P2P) files sharing of copyrighted materials and will discipline any student participating in illegally distributing copyrighted materials.
- b. LBC uses a variety of commercial products, including bandwidth shaping utilities, designed to reduce or block illegal file sharing.
- c. LBC does not prohibit or make any attempt to block the numerous legal alternatives for downloading of intellectual property.

For more information, please refer to the Higher Education Act.
